3 July 1953

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Subject: Little Bermuda Conference

1. The agenda as given to me this morning by Douglas MacArthur is as follows:

I. Europe

A. Soviet Policy and Situation in East Germany and the Satellites.

B. General European Policy and Tactics to be Taken with Respect to German Rearmament and Unification.

II. Far East

A. Korea and Related Questions.

B. Indochina.

2. As to I. A. and B. we have Estimates under way which will not be fully coordinated but will be in sufficiently good form to be of use to the State Department people. WIE-82, [REDACTED] is in Board-approved draft today, and we are asking for agency memoranda as to serious differences by Wednesday, July 8. SE-47, "Soviet Reactions to Developments in Eastern Germany," will be in Board-approved draft by Wednesday, July 8.

3. As to II. A. and B., I propose to render support on more or less a current intelligence basis as the existing Estimate on Indochina, WIE-91, adopted by IAC on May 26, 1953, seems adequate to cover the general army capabilities and intentions and there is no possibility of our doing a coordinated Estimate on post-truce Korean problems in the time available.
